Held In $500,

It took all of Saturday to hear the Come in and look at our stock of Hats, Shoes, Clothing and Gent's Furnishings which proof in the case against Porter Wearen charged with the killing of Grant Leavell, which occurred last county court day. A great many witnesses were examined and the testimony confl cted on several points. Wearen was held in the sum of $300, which was promptly given.

Awful.

In the last ten days Battle Row, Laneaster's negro settlement, has certainly been on the war path. Since last Monday it has been the seme of a killing. a serious cutting, a shooting, one wo man knceyed insenible with a beer bottle, and anothers eye knocked out. To say that this is a disgrace to any community is putting it middly, indeed If commodore Dewey could shell this settlement it would be a gods-send for Lancaster.

New Telephone to Danville.

The new telephone line to Danville was put in operation Tuesday, and Col. Hugher, of the Gilcher Hotel, called up THE RECORD office and extended us an invitation to take dinner with him. This gives two excellent lines to Danville, and we can now stand in our office and converse with the good people of Little Britain. These connections are of inestimable value, as a vast amount of business is transacted between the two cities.

Raiders in Boyle.

The toll-gate nearest Hustonville, on the Danville and Hustonville turnpike was raided Friday night, and the raiders left a note threatening to use dynamite should the gate be replaced.

Some one has suggested that the raiders be captured and sent to the Cuban war, but 'twould be foolish to do this. People who will sneak about could not be pulled into a wateam of exen.

District W. C. T. U.

The annual meeting of the Eighth District W. C. T. U. will be held in Lancaster on the 17th, 18th and 19th of this month. We will have Volney Cushing, the celebrated lecturer, from Maine, for night of 19th. Mrs. Beauchamp, state president, will be present and deliver an address during the mecting.

A grand gold medal contest, the first ever held in the state of Kentucky, will take place one evening during the meeting.

Railroads will grant reduced fare. A full delegation is earnestly desired and a cordial invitation extended to the public in general.

Sunday on "Battle Row."

Sunday Belle Griffin and Mary Denny, two soiled doves of Battle Row, had a bifficulty in which the latter was badly slashed with a knife. The wounded woman is in a precarious ondition. The Griffin woman is in juil and will not be tried until there is a change in her victim's condition. On the same day Theodore Young shattered a beer bottle over the eraniam of Liza Ried, also a denizen of the 'Chute." The woman is a terror to the other negroes living down there and no one seems to blame Theodor for smashing her. Stewart Humber and his wife, also of this same notorious settlement, were enjoying a pleasant jag and Humber struck the woman in the head with something, almost knocking out an

Greatly Discouraged. The band boys are very much discouraged over the fact that the pec ple would not patronize the Heywood entertainment and thus help them to buy uniforms, and other necessary equipments for their organization. the band has never refused to play for anything the people wanted, and during the summer time has given one, and sometimes two, free concerts week. The boys have invested so much in the first-class instruments they use that they do not feel like sinking any more money in the band. They lost about $15 on the Heywoods, and arc now deliberating as to whether they will throw up the sponge and quit. Had the Heywool show been a fraud, the boys would not feel sore. but as they made a heavy gnarantee to get it, knowing its superb ranking, they can't help but feel that their ef forts count for naught.

Patriotic Lancaster Girls. We, the ladies of Laneaster, who so licited subscriptions to purchase a Company Banner for the brave boys who enlisted for the Cnban war, having been informed that the flug would be of no practical use, and wishing the entire company (both offieers and privates), to share alike the funds which represent our efforts in their behalf, have deemed it both wise change o time will go into effect all and expedient to place to the credit of over the L & N. on that day and that said company, in the Citizens National Bank of Laneaster, to be known as a relief fund, the amount of money which has been contributed to be used within reach knew anything about it, for the relief of the unfortunate sick and we published the statement that or wounded. Q. & C. Change.

A new time card went into effect on the Queen and Crescent Sunday. All services had commenceed. Sunday secommodations were taken off on night Eld. Gowen spoke of this nuis Sandays and on that day the fast ance. He asked the congregation to Snndays and on that day the last trains will do the local work. The evening accommodation now arrives at Danville fifteen minntes earlier, and the noon accommodation from the north ten minutes earlier. There are no other material changes. prices ranged from $50 to $80. Contest at Walnutta.

A gold medal contest will be held at Walnutta, Tnesday evening, May 10th. Good speakers will take part and a lively contest is expected. The l'aint Liek band will furnish music. Doors open at 6:30 o'clock. Reserved seats on sale at Fish's drug store, Paint Liek. All tickets are the same, 25 ets. but by buying your ticket in advance yon seenre your seat.

Turnpike Contracts. The Fiscal Court convened on Monday, and opened the bids for putting metal on the several sections of tura pike, as previously announced. Many bids were opened at prices ranging from $4.25 to $7.95 per rod. The lowest bid accepted was $4.25 and the average about $6 per rod. The prices are low enough, and the roads will be kept in good condition.

The Heywoods.

The lleywoods appeared at the Court Honse Saturday night, and everyone present says they gave the best entertainment ever presented in Laneaster. Mr. Heywood is far above the average in his line, and is a whole show by himself. The violin solo by Miss Dresher, the singing of Mr. De-Bray, and the piano playing of Miss Steele was pronounced by competent julges to be of an unusually high order. THE RECORD takes great pleasure in recommending the lleywoods. They give an entertainment which is worth double the price they charge.

The President should appoint only men of military learning and training. and not place the lives of our men in the hands of broken down politicians, who, more than likely, ought to be in the penitentiary.

It is amusing to read reports of the by newspaper boats in the recent naval engagements. Some of the dailies lie about this almost as recklessly as they do over their circulation. The reports of the fights are splendid, it is true, but to read the reporter's story of his whereabouts would almost lead one to believe that the battleships had to steam around the quili-lriver's washing tub in order to get a shot at the enemy.

Tue threatened practice of making eommanding officers out of a lot of broken down politicians and others who have no qualifications for the place whatever, is, indeed, both dangerous and disgusting. The placing of some one, who has no military knowledge whatever. to command soldiers, is almost murder. Now "murder" is putting it pretty strong, but say these soldiers get into an engage-ment; they will have to do what the never studied military maneuvers, and commands the men to take some step by which they are nearly all killed by the enemy-what is that but murder? Any one with a thimbleful of sense knows this is not right. But those possessed with appointing power are most always under the thumb of politicians and are mere tools.

HENRY WATTERSON thinks war with Spain will be worth all it costs this tone towards America and the govcountry. He made this observation in the course of an interview, in which he commended the resolutions adopted by Congress, writes a Chicago correspondent of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

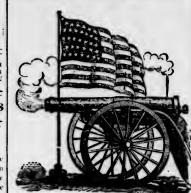

"War will get us out of the rut in which we have been for years," he said, as he settled back in his chair, arranged his unconventional smoking jacket, erossed his lega and began diseussing the crisis which the 'peace-atany-price" people so feared. For years we have discussed the financial questions. We have listened to those who have offered a panacea for all evils and, in a word, listened to plans whereby we could live without workront. The civil war produced a generation of powerful men. War with Spain will do the same. We are at victory he retired in the offing, withpresent in a rut. There are not more ia Congress. A HERO OF THE NAVY.

Lieut. Young the Sole Survivor of the Battleship Huron.

Lieut. Lucien Young, a Casey county boy, of the United States Navy, is the sole survivor of the wars ip Hnron, which was wrecked at Nagg's Head, off the coast of South Carolina, Nov. 21th, 1877. The big man of war was swept into the breakers during a ter-rible gale, and when she went to piecrible gale, and when she went to pieces over a hundred men went down to their memories as long as life lasts. It Some of our farmers are through death, which made it the most disas-danting corn. is a frequent occurrence to read in the daily papers a story relating to "about

In the height of the storm, Lieut. Young, an officer named Conway and the estimable wife of Lincoln's big the quartermaster risked their lives in a eatamaran to earry a line ashore. The cigar shaped boat was simply a toy in the boiling surf, but after swimming and pushing it the tired men finally reached land. Notwithstanding their exhausted condition they broke into a life-saving station, manned a boat and succeeded in saving a few men. When the Huron went lown Lieut. Young walked until he found a telegraph station and sent the details to Washington. Naturally the news ereated a tremendous sensation. and Young was the hero of the hour His native State, Kentncky, sent him a splendid sword in recognition of his services, and his congressman succeeded in having him promoted 30 numbers for his heroism.

Lieut. Young is naturally a fighter, and some years later electrified Washington society by threatening to whip a well-known embassador. The diclomat went to the navy department for certain official data, which he wished to send out out on the next steamer. As a favor Licut. Young volunteered to secure it, and when the mat er was in shape went in search of the minister. Not finding him at the embassy or at his home, he hied himself to the club, thinking that the importance of the affair warranted the in-face of the irate diplomat and vehemently promised him a thrashing if he would come out from the sacred precincts of the club. After a sharp verbal skirmiah the men parted without coming to blows, but cordial relations were never restored, and the ambaswere never restored, and the ambas-

JUDGE OWSLEY'S GALLANTRY.

An Interesting Story of His Predomina ting Characteriatic as told by A Stanford Lady. STANFORD, April 30. - These days of wars and rumors of wars are bringing to the surface reminescences from m ny old people who encountered the high-rolling waves of the futhomless and now "Aunt Mollie" Nnnnelley trader, Phillip P. Nunnelley, tells with infinite pleasure how the late lamentel Judgel Mike H. Owsley upon one occasion rescued her from a perilous situation in the midst of the war times of the '60s. Mr. and Mrs. Nunnelley were residing in Pulaski county, twoand-a-half miles this side of Somerset on the farm where a Mr. Lewis now lives. Col. Frank Wolford's daring regiment of cavalry, of which Judge M. H. Owsley was the Captain, was in eamp in the suburbs of Somerset, as SPRING AND was also Col. Bramlett's troop. One day a soldier of the latter regiment sneaked out of camp and went prowl ing through the country, like a roar ing lion, seeking whom he might devonr. He was a frightful looking specimen of humanity and was considered the toughest and most desperate character in Col. Bramlett's army. He finally reached the country residence of Mr. Nnnnelley, who was absentant his wife and Mrs. Ike Cowen were there alone. Entering the house, with a drawn sword, this desperate soldier loudly swore that he was going to commit some fearful erimes, and addcd: "I will then kill you d-d defenseless creatures-I'm a bad man! The two ladies were terrified. The warrior bold was staggering drunk and they managed to keep out of his trusion. But the minister was fnrious.

"What do you mean, sir," he demanded, "by coming here? This isn't the place for business."

This discontesy threw Young into a rage. He flung the papers into the large. He flung the papers into the control of the large o were never restored, and the ambassador experienced a sense of personal safety when the big Lieutenant went to sea.—Semerset Paragon.

KENTUCKY IS AWAKE.

Commercial Convention Will Be a Grand Success.

EVERYBODY INTERESTED III IT.

Industrial Development Is One Thing Desired.

REMARKABLE SPIRIT OF PROGRESS

for the Masses-Many Important Subjects Will Be Discussed by Those Most Competent to Handle Them-Promo tion and Development Are to Be Con sidered to the Exclusion of Less Profit able Things.

Kentucky's first state commercial convention, to be held in Louisville May 11 and 12, is to be a success. The movement in that direction has progressed far enough to assure those engineering It of that fact.

It is to be a success because the lawyer, the farmer, the merchant, the manufacturer, the lumber dealer, the mine owner, the stockraiser, the banker and the journalist will all unite in one grand effort to push Kentucky and her untold resources to the front. It ls to be a success because business talks are to take the place of political speeches: because promotion and development are to be discussed to the exclusion of less profitable things; finally it is to be a success because the time is ripe for a state commercial convention to be a success. Less than two months ago several of the Louisville Commercial club. held a meeting in Louisville to formulate plans for a convention which would have for its object the creation of a sentiment favorable to industrial development, teaching the benefits of such a course and to prepare literature setting forth Kentucky's advantages. mation that polities had anything to This little gathering was followed by those seeking markets for such proddo with locating the camp at Lexing- larger ones until the bit of enterprise ton and announces that no further that was manifested in the first meeting burst into a spirit of progress that was made to permeate the entire state. The convention soon assumed tangible form. An executive committee, with representatives from every congressional district, was named, as were committees on delegation, press and publicity, finance, transportation, hail, entertainment, and delegation state at large. Mr. Clarence Dallam, a well known and popular young attorney of Louisville, who is a native of Henderson, but was for many years ldentified with Paducah as a lawyer, was elected chairman, and Mr. J. C. Van Pelt, assistant secretary of the Commercial club, secretary,

Thus industry's star of promotion rose rapidly. A meeting was held at which seven of the 11 districts had prominent representation, and a program was arranged, the following subjects being selected as those that are to be discussed during the convention:

"Our Industrial Opportunities and "The Best System of State and Local Taxatlon."

Storm Clouds May Be Dispelled by Bravely Facing Them.

Every Cloud Has a Silver Lining if We But Have Courage to Look For It—Hope-ful Words on Life's Ills and How Best to Meet Them.

In known cure for piles. Stormes' Drng other words there are a hundred men looking for sunshine. My object will be to get you and myself into the delightful habit of making the best of everything. You may have wondered at the statistics that in India, in the year should be begun with the pigs through 1875, there were over 19,000 people slain by wild beasts, and that in the year 1876 there were in India over 20,-000 people destroyed by wild animals. land which is year by year destroying more than that. It is the old bear of time. It takes more feed to start melancholy, and with Gospel weapons I propose to chase it back to its midnight caverus. I mean to do two sums -a sum in subtraction and a sum in addition-a subtraction from your days of depression and an addition to your days of joy. If God will help me I will compel you to see the bright light that there is in the clouds, and compel you to make the best of every-

> In the first place you ought to make the very best of all your financial misfortunes. During the panie a few years ago you all lost money. Some of you lost it in most unaccountable ways. LANCASTER, KY For the question: "How many the sands of dollars shall I put aside this year?" you substituted: "How shall I pay my butcher, and baker, and clother, and landlord?" You had the sensation of rowing hard with two oars, and yet all the time going down stream.

You did not say much about it be cause it was not politic to speak much of linancial embarrassment, but your wife knew. Less variety of wardrobe. more economy at the taide, self-denial in art and tapestry. Compassion; re-trenchment. Who did not feel the necessity of it? My friends, did you make the best of this? Are you aware of how narrow an escape you made? Suppose you had reached the fortune toward which you were rapidly going? Charch-Arrested and Brought to Louis- What then? You would have been as prond as Lucifer?

How few men have succeeded largely prayer, "give me this day my daily bread?" How few men largely successful in this world are bringing souls to Christ, or showing self-denial for others, or are eminent for piety? You can count them all upon your eight tingers and two thumbs.

One of the old covetous souls, when he was sick, and sick unto death, used to have a basin brought in-a basin filled with gold, and his only amuse-ment and the only relief he got for his inflamed hands was running them down through the gold and turning it up in the basin. Oh, what infatnation and what destroying power money has for many a man! Now, you were sailing at 30 knots the hour toward these vortices of worldliness-what a merey it was, that honest defalcation! The same divine hand that crushed your storehouse, your bank, your office. your insurance, lifted you out of destruction. The day you honestly suspended in business made your fortune for eternity. "Oh," you say, "I could get along very well myself, but I am so disappointed that I can not leave a compe-tence to my children." My brother, the same financial misfortune that is going to save your soul will save your children. With anticipation of a large fortune, how much industry would children have? without which habit of industry there is no safety. The young man would say: "Well, there's no need of my working; my father will soon step out and then I'll have just what I want." You can not hide from him how much you are worth. You think you are hiding it; he knows all about it. He can tell you almost to a dollar. Perhaps he has been to the county of fice and scarched the records of deeds and mortgages, and he has added it all up, and he has made an estimate of how long you will probably stay in this world, and is not as much worried about your rheumatism and shortnes of breath as you arc. The only for tune worth anything that you can give your child is the fortune you put in his head and heart. Of all the young men wbo started life with $40, o capital how many turned out well? l do not know ha'f a dozen.

The best inheritance a young can have is the feeling that he has to fight his own battle, and that life is a struggle into which he must throw body, mind and soul, or be disgrace, fully worsted. Where are the burial places of the men who started life with a fortune? Some of them in the potter's field; some in the suicide's grave. Let few of these men reached 85 years of age. They drank, they smoked, they gambled. In them the beast destroyed the man. Some of them lived loug enough to get their for majority of them did not live to get their inheritance. From the gin shop or house of infamy they were brought home to their father's house, and in delirium began to pick off loathsome reptiles from the embroidered pillow, and to fight back imaginary devils And then they were laid out in highly upholstered parlor, the casket covered with flowers by indulgent parents-flowers suggestive of a resurrection with no hope.

As you eat this morning at your breakfast table, and looked into the faces of your children, perhaps you said within yourself, "Poor-things! How I wish I could start them in life with a competence! How I have been stuck him. I gather from all this that years old. with a competence! How I have been

It means that the like best view of the delectagrandest blessing God ever bestowed upon you was to take your money away from you. Let me here say, in passing, do not put much stress on the treasures of this world. You can not take them along with you. At any ores and gods to the defecta-ble monutains is through the lattice of the sickroom. There are trains running every hour between pillow and turone, between take them along with you. Attack them at the cemetery. Attack three collins. So fond head! my foot, my foot! my back, my head! my foot, my foot! my back, my head! my foot my foot have a the collision of the Lord's first he should be buried in a coffin of medicine! You are going to be well gold, and that then that should be inclosed in a coffin of silver, and that should be inclosed in a coffin of iron, and then a large amount of treasure should be thrown in over his body, And so he was buried, and the men who buried him were slain, so that no one might know where he was buried, and no one might there interfere with his treasures. Oh, men of the world, who want to take your money with on, better have three collias! Again, I remark, you ought to make he very best of your bereavements. The whole tendency is to brood over these separations, and to give much time to the handling of mementoes of the departed, and to make long visitations to the cemetery, and to say: "Ob. Some of you talk as though Gol had reached the Idissful terminus? Besides that my friends, you are to look at this matter as a selfdenial on your part for their benefit. If your children want to go off in a May-day party; if your children want sion, you consent. You might prefer to have them with you, but their jubilant absence satisfies you Well, your departed children have only gone out in a Mny-day party, amid flowery and nusical entertainment, amid joys and hilarities forever. When the vessel came from foreign lan Is and brought a prince to our harbor the ships were covered with bunting, and you remember how the men-of-war thundred broatsides; but there was no joy there compared with the joy which shall be demonstrated when you sail up the broad bay of Heavenly saintation. The more friends you have there the casier your own transit. What is death to a mother whose children are in Heaven? Why, there is no more grief in it than there is in her going into a hursery amid the romp and laughter of her household. Though all around may be dark, see you not the bright light in the clouds-that light irradiated faces of your glorilied kin-

So, also, my friends, I would have you make the best of your sicknesses. When you see one move off with clastic step and in full physical vigor, sometimes you become impatient with your lame foot. When a man describes an object a mile off, and you can not sec it at all, you become impatient of your dim eye. When you hear of a well man making a great achievement you become impatient with your de pressed nervous system or your dilapi-dated health. I will tell you how you can make the worst of it. Brood over lt; brood over all these illnesses, and your nerves will become more witchy and your dyspersia more aggravated and your weaknesses more appalling. But that is the devil's work, to tell you how to make the worst of it; it is my work to show you a bright light in the

If the exhausted houselt in building this 13,000 children who had entered world, and that all the rich curtains Heaven had gone throngs the average the ever made hung around this planet, human life on earth are you sur and all the flowers lie ever grew II: all those 10,000 would have finally has woven into the carpet of our daisied meadows. No. This world is not the best thing Gol can do; this world is not the best thing that God has done. One week of the year is called blassom week -ealled so all through the to go on a flowery and musical exeur- land because there are more blossom in that week than in any other week of the year. Blossom week! And tha is what the future world is to which the Christian is invited-blossom week forever. It is as far ahead of this world as paradise is ahead of Dry Tor tugas, and yet here we stand shivering ome of your grief, the thought of and afraid to go out, and we want t stay on the dry sand, and amid the stormy petrels, when we are invited t areors of jessamine and birds of para-

As I went on down toward New Orleans, the verdure, the became thicker and more beautiful. you have in Heaven the easier it will | When I came back the further I came be to get away from the world. The toward home the less the foliage, and more friends here, the more bitter less and less it became until there was good-hys; the more friends there the hardly any. Now it all depends upon the direction in which youtravel.

a spirit from Heaven should come toward our world he is traveling from June toward December, from raliance toward darkness, from han zing gardens toward icebergs And one would not be very inneh surprised if a spirit of God sent forth from Heaven toward our world should be slow to come. But how strange i is that we dreal going out toward that world when going is from December toward June-from the snow of earthly storm to the snow of Eienie blos som - from the arctics of trouble to

ly 1850 the tallest building in New York was only five stories high, and the church spires were conspicuous above them. Now there is only one spire in the city as high as the talles building.

DURING the last 50 years Great Britain has been at war more frequent ly than any other nation. The total number of large and small wars waged during that time amounts to about 50, or one a year. WHEN a newly designed fountain per fails to work an auxiliary pen can be pushed down to take its place by opcrating a sliding ring on the holder, the second pen being intended for use with an ink bottle. l'ans and Marseilles are connected by telegraph lines entirely under ground. They are placed in iron pipes and buried four feet beneath the sur face, with manholes 3,000 feet apart. It cost nearly £1,500,000 to bury the wires. Although this country has not the advantage of a location that Great Britain has as regards German markets, yet one-third the sawing machines and two-fifths of the bieveles Imported into that country in 1893 came from the United States. RECENTLY, while exeavating some land for the construction of the municipal sewage outfall works at Stock-port, Cheshire, England, a gigantic fossilized oak, with two branches complete, and computed to weigh over 40 tons, was unearthed. It is quite an unique specimen, being larger than tators have been guessing about for years, not knowing exactly what the gland, and its solidity and beauty of
